The image shows a scan of a historical record card, likely from a cemetery or burial record book. The card is filled with handwritten text and has several columns and rows. The top section contains the name 'Wesley' and some other identifying information. Below that, there are sections for 'Date of Birth', 'Date of Death', and 'Place of Burial'. The card also includes a section for 'Cause of Death' and 'Burial Date'. The handwriting is in cursive, and the card appears to be a standard form used for recording burial information.
