

Alberic Barbier

Hybrid Wichurana Rose

Introduced 1900

Light yellow ages to white

Climbing, thornless, soft canes

Moderate, green apple, tea fragrance

Shade tolerant, almost evergreen

Can be trained on pillars, swags, and lattice

Banksia Lutea (Yellow)

“Yellow Lady Banks”

Species Rose

Introduced 1824

Large Clusters of Small, Pale Yellow Blooms

Lacy Foliage

Vigorous Climber—Needs Support

Very Few Thorns

Gardenia

Hybrid Wichurana Rose

Introduced 1899

Medium-size Pale Yellow Blooms

Vigorous but Graceful Habit

Needs Something to Grow on!

Healthy, Glossy, Dark Green Foliage

Ghislaine de Feligonde

Hybrid Multiflora Rose

Introduced 1916

Distinctive Pale Yellow Color

Large Clusters of Double Blooms

Blooms Once, Disease Resistant

Climber up to 20 Feet, Nearly Thornless

Mermaid

Hybrid Bracteata Rose

Introduced 1918

Huge Yellow Flowers, Showy Stamens

Huge Climber—Up to 20 Feet!

Continuous Blooms, Starting “Late”

Very Tough, Disease Free, Big Thorns

Mrs. Dudley Cross

Tea Rose

Introduced 1908

Light Yellow with Pink Highlights, Double Blooms

Blooms in Flushes Throughout the Season

Medium to Large Shrub Growing 3'-10' Tall by 3'-10'
Wide

Moderate Fragrance, Thornless or Nearly Thornless