

Banksia White

“White Lady Banks”

Species Rose

Introduced 1807

Profuse Clusters of Small White Blooms

Vigorous Climber—Needs Support

No Thorns!

Deer and Disease Resistant

Maman Cochet, White

Climbing Tea Rose

Introduced 1907

Cream, Rose-Red Outer Petals, Double Blooms

Climber, Height 3-5' Width 2-8'

Blooms in Flushes Throughout the Season

Strong Tea Fragrance

Silver Moon

Large Flowered Climber

Introduced 1910

White Blooms with Yellow Centers

Very Vigorous, Healthy, Glossy Foliage

Very Thorny—A Survivor

Mild Fragrance

Sombreuli

Climbing Tea Rose

Introduced 1850

Creamy White, Flat, Full Flowers

Blooms Throughout Summer

Not Too Vigorous—Good for Archways

Very Dependable Rose

White Rugosa

White

Strong fragrance

Introduced 1894

Medium to large

Occasional repeat bloom later in the season